A Twist in the Tale is a collection of 12 short stories with a twist in the end for each story. Jeffrey Archer stated in the book that ten of the short stories are based on known incidents plus some embellishment and only two of the stories are a result of his own imagination. While this book is not his best work I still loved reading each story.

A Twist in the Tale. I began my first blog, Buzz In Around the Hive, about six years ago as a way to journal my experience as a caregiver to my parents, Earnie and Ray. Sprinkled in between stories of the joys and challenges of caring for aging parents, I shared recipes, ideas for home decor and entertaining, the milestones of being Miss Bee's mother and a few stories including, Mr. Bee, my husband.
