Central America – Central America – The Habsburg period (1524–1700): Political jurisdiction over Central America under Spanish rule evolved slowly because of the rivalries between conquistadores. These rivalries led to violence and civil war among the Spaniards in the early years of colonial rule and retarded the unification of Central America.

Since the 1990s 18th Street has been one of the largest street gangs in Los Angeles with cells, or cliques, across a number of neighborhoods. Gang leaders deported in the 1990s also helped spread the gang across Central America and into Mexico. Transplanted 18th Streeters also have exported their criminal ways to other states and countries.

I used an earlier edition of the "Mexico & Central America Handbook"(Plus, "The South American Handbook") to travel from San Diego, CA, to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, by bus, train. New editions have less small town maps, less fine detail than older ones. One could probably still make it with these, however.
