The miracle at Cana in Galilee is the first recorded miracle of Jesus. His ministry began at His baptism by John the Baptist. By chapter two, Jesus has just called out the first of His disciples who have begun following Him. Later in John chapter twenty-one, we find that one of those disciples, Nathaniel, was in fact from Cana in Galilee.

Parents need to know that Miracle Workers is a light, satirical comedy that uses a general religious framework -- God running heaven like a corporation -- to talk about current world events. In it, God (Steve Buscemi) is drinking his way through a mid-life crisis, heaven is a mundane office building, and it's up to two rogue worker angels to save the earth from imminent disaster.

Miracle Workers - TV Review

Apollonius was not the only charismatic miracle worker. Our sources mention several "divine men" - people who were considered to have a personal shortcut to the gods, and frequently tried to reform the religious practices of their age, which sometimes brought them into conflict with more conservative people.
