Paul and Jesus: How the Apostle Transformed Christianity ...

In "Paul and Jesus", James Tabor presents a striking and quite well-reasoned hypothesis: that the Christianity practiced today owes less to Jesus than it does to Paul, and in fact, Pauline Christianity may be actively in conflict with the messages preached by the historical Jesus.

Paul and Jesus: How the Apostle Transformed Christianity ...

Tabor shows how Paul separated himself from Peter and James to introduce his own version of Christianity, which would continue to develop independently of the message that Jesus, James, and Peter preached. Paul and Jesus illuminates the fascinating period of history when Christianity was born out of Judaism.

Paul and Jesus: How the Apostle Transformed Christianity ...

Paul, Tabor tells us, taught a much different message than Jesus, Peter and James, Jesus' apostles, who "... continued to live as Jews, observing the Torah and worshiping in the Temple at ...

Review: Paul And Jesus - NBC2 News

The likeness of Paul to Jesus extends even to those features which appear in the Jesus of modern liberalism. What is more impressive, however, than all similarity in detail is the similarity in the two persons taken each as a whole. The Gospels are more than a collection of sayings and anecdotes; the Pauline Epistles are more than a collection ...

Question: "Did Paul ever meet Jesus in person?" Answer: The subject of Jesus Christ and His saving work were at the forefront of the apostle Paul's ministry. "Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!" he said (1 Corinthians 9:16). This great apostle consistently focused his evangelistic efforts on convincing people that Jesus was the promised Messiah of Israel as well as the risen Lord ...

Did Paul ever meet Jesus in person? | GotQuestions.org

Paul's epistles lack detailed biographical information – most mythicists argue that the Pauline epistles are older than the gospels but, aside from a few passages which may have been interpolations, there is a complete absence of any detailed biographical information such as might be expected if Jesus had been a contemporary of Paul, nor do ...

Christ myth theory - Wikipedia

Paul can't just say "Jesus was the messenger, and the message is what matters." Even though that's probably just what Jesus would have said he was. Paul can't say that. To him, Jesus is the message, and the message is Jesus. But he, Paul, is there to explain the message to us.

Jesus and Paul: Similarities and Differences | The Bart ...

The conversion of Paul the Apostle (also the Pauline conversion, Damascene conversion, Damascus Christophany and The Road to Damascus event), was, according to the New Testament, an event in the life of Paul the Apostle that led him to cease persecuting early Christians and to become a follower of Jesus. It is normally dated to AD 34–37.

James and Paul - Bible Odyssey

As a Jew Paul is an "apostate" from the Torah, not because of his views of Jesus but because of his declarations about the Sinai covenant and its obsolescence. I do not find the arguments of Gager, Gaston, and Stendahl convincing, that Paul only says what he says about the Torah in the context of opposing those who would impose halachic ...

James Dunn's Review of My Book: Paul and Jesus - TaborBlog

Paul (originally Saul of Tarsus) was the brilliantly-successful missionary who transformed the fledgling sect of Christians into a movement that spread throughout the known world. Yet his teachings stand in stark and overwhelming contradiction to those attributed to Jesus. Because so many of the early Christians came by way of Paul, and because so much of it is interpreted through
